

Visual Curriculum Vitae

o6 Media Appearances

Contact Information

Dr. Carolyn M. West

Professor of Psychology

School of Interdisciplinary
Arts & Science

Box 358436

1900 Commerce Street

Tacoma, Washington 98402

253.692.5652

carwest@uw.edu

www.DrCarolynWest.com

Table of Contents

Sections

- 01 Introduction
- 02 Educational Background
- 03 Current position
- 04 Research
- 05 Presentations
- 06 Media Appearances
- 07 Awards
- 08 Personal Philosophy

Media Appearances

o6

Dr. West has appeared on:

- Television
- Radio
- Newspaper
- Magazines

Television

Show Taping

Hall E

Tuesday, July 29 - 5:00 p.m.

The Future of Black America

HOST

Willie E. Gary, Esq.

Gary, Williams, Parenti, et al
Chairman & CEO, MBC Cable Network

CO-HOST

Della Reese

The Future of Black America, MBC Network's invigorating panel discussion program featuring America's most notable political, civic and social leaders as they debate current issues affecting the Black community. The show is taped live to air on MBC at a future date and time. Show will tape from the Conference on July 29, 2003 from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. Come be a part of our live audience.

Panelists

Ronald E. Hampton

Executive Director
National Black Police Association

Evelyn K. Moore

President
National Black Child Development Institute (NBCDI)

Andrew Moss

Senior Vice President
National Community Reinvestment Coalition

Dr. Carolyn West

Assistant Professor of Psychology
University of Washington-Tacoma
SOBA 2003 - "The Feminist Perspective and the Black Family"

Television

- Dating violence on historical Black college campuses. Keepin' It Real Show hosted by Gil Knowles. United Negro College Fund Special Programs.

Radio

Dr. West has given national radio interviews.

Magazine

f people are asking for it, who's to say that is wrong? If people don't like it, they should vote at the record store."

—DEBRA LEE

olence. I get concerned when I see girls mimic the X-rated clothing that Lil' Kim wears or the X-rated lyrics of songs like Kelis's "Milkshake." It puts young girls in positions that they can't handle once the attention is drawn to them. □

Ayana Byrd and Akiba Solomon have written for Vibe and The

Carolyn West, Ph.D.,
associate professor of psychology, University of Washington, Tacoma

Many adults are quite ignorant about what's out there. We can't afford to pretend it doesn't exist. We live in America, and people have a right to produce those images, so I'm not talking about censorship. But even if artists won't be responsible, the community has to hold them accountable.

My fear is that girls don't even see their own victimization anymore. They say, "I'm a bitch, I'm a ho, I'm a tip drill." As porn moves more into the mainstream, it only normalizes the behavior and how we deal with sexual assault and vi-

Magazine

EBONY

“These physical and emotion health problems just radiate throughout your life,” West adds. “It’s so much more complicated for African-American women. Oftentimes, we don’t have access to mental health care to move on.”

--Carolyn West, Ph.D.,
University of Washington,
Tacoma Associate Professor

Newspaper

Dr. West has been interviewed by newspapers.

Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

PITTSBURGH
CityPaper

Seattle Post-Intelligencer

Internet

- Dr. West has been interviewed by internet news outlets.

